ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short-weight, adulterated or phony powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 110 Wall Street, New York.

What on Earth
Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

How Can Parents
allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

The girl who took the first prize at a recent beauty show in San Francisco was Miss Lizzie Ten Eyck. She was born in Carlin Nevada. As soon as the other girls heard she was from Nevada they withdrew, knowing it was useless to compete with a mountain bred maid with our glorious climate to paint her complexion.

Tom Avery the prize fighter who fought Cambell in the city some years ago, dropped dead in the ring in San Francisco yesterday while boxing.

A. Cohn has a live adv. of his new goods, which everyone ought to read carefully before purchasing. The prices he is offering this stock at render it impossible for other parties to meet the cut.

Another glove match is being arranged for Virginia City on the 6th of May. Latta came down last evening to meet Kehoe of Chicago who arrives here this morning. He will fight Phil Duncan (colored) of Gold Hill.

EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Please announce in the columns of your valuable paper that we are sole agents for St. Patrick's Pills, the most perfect cathartic and liver pills in the market. They not only physic, but cleanse the whole system; purify the blood and regulate the liver and bowels; they are vigorous but gentle in their action and can always be depended upon. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

COIN TALKS.—Some parties yesterday offered to bet that Oakwood the mind reader could not find hidden articles blindfolded. Parties in this city who had seen Oakwood's private performance, quickly produced the money, but the parties backed down. Prof. Oakwood authorizes the APPEAL to state that he is ready to bet 4 to 1 that he can do what he claims, the money won, to go to a charitable institution. He had a standing offer of $50 to any well known citizen of Marysville who would drive a tack anywhere inside the city limits that Oakwood could not find in 30 minutes blindfolded. Oakwood states that he never offers to bet and never declines them when offered.

WILL CLOSE.—We, the undersigned, hereby announce that we will close our respective places of business on Tuesday next, "Inauguration Centennial."

"TOO WHIT! TOO WHOO!"

The Midnight Owl Follows the Early Closing.

"I tell you this early closing racket is awfully tight on the town," said a man in front of Livingston's yesterday, with a nose the color of a ripe peach.

"I am watching the game, and the changes makes an old timer tired. After the twelve o'clock bell tolls, you can see each saloon open its doors and a lot of ghastly old drunks begin to reel up Main street, leaving the bright and cheerful bar for their bleak and dismal homes. They bett the awnin' posts on the sides of the street and make the bildin's rattle, as they zigzag across again. They are just primed full enough to make it lively for the family when they git there, when if they could have a good sleep in some corner they would reach home in good humor. Well, just after twelve the street is as quiet as the grave, and then the owls come in from the country and begin to flap and flap about the city, taking entire possession of it. You hear 'em cry with the same old melancholy refrain, "Too Whit! Too Whoo!" They roost in the Capitol and on the churches and all over the hotels and saloons and think they own the town as they sing, "Too Whit! Too Whoo!" and then they wind up with "wool! wool! wool!" as a man passes. They growl this out right in your face and look down with eyes as big as saucers. Dozens of 'em come in and roost all night, and every three minutes they remark, "Too Whit! Too Whoo!" until a man wants to git a shot gun and turn loose."

"Oh, they'r just the forerunners, there'll be thousands here in a few months and then they'll take up their roosts in Virginia City, and they've come to stay. Unless the Legislature repeals the law the country's gone. By next year you can't walk the streets at all after 1 o'clock in the morning, without trampin' on owls."

PONY UP.—The editor of the Wabaska Mangler, discourses as follows:

Some weeks ago this scribe bet quite an amount on the Jackson-Cardiff prize fight with the leading citizens of Mason Valley. We backed the moke to the extent of nine dollars, with nine different people and since the news of the fight reached here they don't come round any more, but water their horses at the old slough up the road instead of coming to our well as before. These men had better pony up right sharp or we will show them up hard at the next church meeting.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—Rev. R. H. Brady, of Reno, will preach at the Methodist Church today, morning and evening.

Rev. Geo. R. Davis will conduct the services at St. Paul's, Virginia City, today.

There will be communion at St. Peter's Episcopal Church today, and the Easter music will be repeated.

ADVERTISED LIST.—Gentlemen's list: Herbert Blackey, Frank Matos, Johan Olsen, John T. Rogers, F. W. Simonds, C. A. Thomas. Ladies' list: Mrs. Minnie Allen, Violet Condeaux, M. Kennedy, Mrs. M. McKay.

PROF. OAKWOOD.

His Wonderful Feats at Mind Reading.

On Friday evening Professor Oakwood gave some exhibitions of mind reading at the Arlington House parlors, having for his audience a number of gentlemen who were present by invitation.

Mr. Ryan, of the Mint, and Mr. Mittedorfer took a scarf-pin, and in company with Major Garrard, hid it in one of the rooms of the Arlington. Oakwood was then blindfolded, and taking Ryan by the hand requested him to fix his mind on the pin. This was done, but after about ten minutes' search the pin was not found, and he then took Mittedorfer's hand and went at once to the room where the pin was. He insisted that it was there, but failed to find it until he took Major Garrard's hand, when he went to it at once. The writer then hid the pin, and the Professor blindfolded, went to it directly.

The room was in semi-darkness, and the operator blindfolded.

He told any of the audience to drive a nail anywhere in the city limits and bring him back the hammer and he would go to in blindfolded and strike it with the hammer the first time. The nail was driven into a post just back of Chedie's store, and the Professor went to it on the run and hit it the first time.

He gave a couple of slates to Major Garrard and the writer, and they were cleaned on both sides and wrapped up in a silk handkerchief. He asked each man to draw a card from a pack. They did so, and on opening the slates found the names of their cards written inside in a clear hand.

The spiritualists claim that he is aided by spirits in his remarkable performances, but he disclaims all connection with spiritualism, and claims that what he does is mind reading.

He will give a public performance at the Opera House this evening.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.—Last Sunday, F. Donnelly and J. B. Murphy arrested Wm. Sadler and John Fribish Bier in Pine Nut, on suspicion that they were implicated in the murder of Balma Celas. They were brought to Genoa and placed in jail. Sadler is the man who came to town on the 27th of March and reported to the authorities the discovery of the dead body of the murderer man, and Bier is a Dutchman who has been cutting wood in Pine Nut. Their examination before Justice Burnham has occupied the past two or three days and nearly the entire population of Pine Nut was summoned as witnesses. All of yesterday was spent in taking testimony, and the case of Bier was taken under advisement until to-day, while Sadler's case was continued for further examination of witnesses.—Genoa Courier.

THE OVERLAND.—The Overland for May is a very readable number. The Hermit Ledge is an excellent story of early California life, and told in a fine vein.

The only thing in the number conspicuously not good, is a wretched piece of poetry entitled, "Our Camp," written in the style of Longfellow's Hiawatha. With this stuff omitted, the Overland would be perfect.

This particular outlandish meter lived all the usefulness it ever had in the hands of Longfellow, and a continual reading of its monotonous rhyme will drive any sane man crazy. It is high time that this style of verse was laid away in the dustiest corner of the top shelf.

WILL STUDY FOR OPERA.—Miss Lilly Schneider will leave for Chicago tomorrow, where she will take a course of French, German and Italian, preparatory to taking a course of musical instruction in Berlin and Paris. Her expenses are all paid for four years by a German musical association, whose object is to assist people with good natural voices and fit them for the operatic stage. Carson will watch the young lady's career with great interest.

The young man who cleaves cutlets at Geo. Hark's is already entered in the prize beauty show for men, in San Francisco. Our money backs the Ormsby Adonis for the 1st prize.
